It is with gratitude that we look back at the year of 2005 and remember how richly the Lord has blessed us. The Lord has allowed both of us to serve Him in new ways beyond our expectations. He has trusted us in this ministry in Guatemala, blessed us with good health, and provided opportunities for spiritual, emotional, and educational growth.

God has provided all good things, such as...

• God has blessed us with visits from family and friends. He gave us laughter with them and times of deep sharing.

• ...Time for the two of us to deepen our own marriage and celebrate our 35th wedding anniversary.

• God brought us to Guatemala and has continually provided for our safety and comfort...

• ...And has allowed us the privilege to care for missionaries through pastoral care...

• God provided us with opportunities to serve Him through teams...

...such as construction,

... with various times and opportunities for prayer, encouragement, and friendship.

... women's ministry

• God has provided times of spiritual and sometimes painful emotional growth in us and others around us.

• The Lord has provided faithful supporters who have stood with us in prayer and finances.

• We had the opportunity to study Spanish even though we still have much to learn.

...and children's ministry.

• God has taken care of our family in Texas...

• ... While providing friendships here in Guatemala.

There is no greater privilege and joy than to serve our Lord and be loved by Him.

Thank you dear friends for your participation in the ministry here in Guatemala
